

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Gayle Miller is retiring on January 11, 2008, after 43 years of employment as the senior secretary for the South Dakota Department of Labor's Unemployment Insurance Appeals Section, Aberdeen, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Gayle has provided outstanding and professional customer service to the employers, workers, and other South Dakota citizens involved in unemployment insurance appeals; and,

Whereas, Gayle has shared her talents with several organizations within the Department of Labor office during her years of service, including the Coffee Committee, Social Club, Christmas Committee, and Picnic Committee, and she currently serves on the Board of Directors of the South Dakota Employment Security Credit Union; and,

Whereas, Gayle is regarded by her colleagues and friends as an amazing and caring person, dedicated to her job, highly respected as an individual, very well liked by all, and known for her signature brownies; and,

Whereas, Gayle's retirement will allow her to enjoy more time with her husband of over 40 years, Ray, daughters, Ricci and Vicci, their son-in-laws, five grandchildren, and many friends; and,

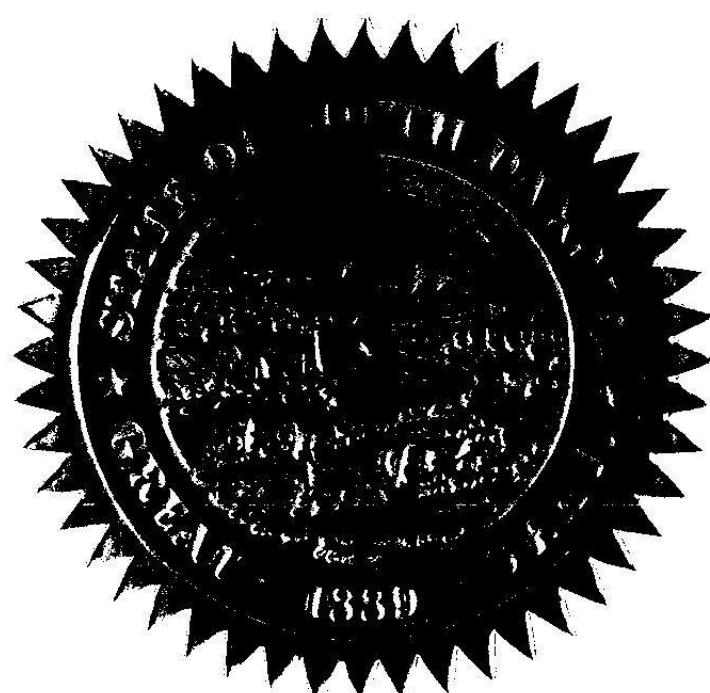

Whereas, Gayle will be recognized for her many contributions to state government at a retirement open house on January 12, 2008, and it is fitting and proper to recognize the many accomplishments and years of service of this valued South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 11, 2008, as in South Dakota, and I join her co-workers, family, and friends in congratulating her on this well-earned retirement and wishing her a long, healthy, peaceful, and enjoyable retirement.

GAYLE MILLER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State